

No Darkness in Light

By Swami Suryadevananda

Darkness or night asked for an audience with God along with light or day against whom there was an accusation. God asked darkness to speak, and he answered that he was being harassed and bullied by light relentlessly. "I am forever being chased by light and have no place to rest. Wherever I go, he comes there and I have to leave. It is most unbearable!" God asked light to speak to which he said, "I hear a voice but do not see anyone. How can I chase this so-called darkness as I have never ever seen him? I travel far and wide and wherever I go—he is never there!"

6 June '10